Saturday, May 29th: Front Line Workers Appreciation Day- People on the front lines throughout this Pandemic have worked very hard to keep everyone safe. Let's show our appreciation for all they do for our community! You can wear white to show your support for people who work in the Medical Field (Doctors, Nurses, other Medical Staff). Wear Blue, Red, or Gray to show recognition to the dedicated members of our Torch Run. (Police, Fire & Corrections.) Wear black to show your support for those who work in the Food Service Industry. (Grocery Store & Restaurant Employees) You can also wear Military colors if you know someone who protects our Country!

Sunday, May 30th: Pajama Party- Kick back, relax and wear your favorite pajamas! (Make sure they are appropriate for sharing on social media when you post your photos.)

Monday, May 31st: Patriotic Day- What better way to celebrate Memorial Day than with a Patriotic Day? Wear your Red, White & Blue to show your love for our country!

Tuesday, June 1st: Decades Day- There were the Sock-Hops of the 60's, the Groovy 70's, the Awesome 80's, the Rad 90's and then the Millenium! Or go way back to the Roarin 20's! Pick your favorite decade and dress along with it as you also rock out to your favorite songs from that era!

Wednesday, June 2nd: Wacky Wednesday- Let's get crazy! Silly Socks, Crazy Hats, Mismatched or even backwards clothes! You can pick your favorite or you could even do them all!

Thursday, June 3rd: Throwback Thursday- Post a photo of one of your favorite memories in Special Olympics RI on your social media page. It could be a photo from a qualifying event, State Summer Games, Winter Games, or even a SORI fundraiser!

Friday, June 4th: Hooray for Hollywood!- Dress as a character from your favorite movie or tv show! Don't have a costume? No problem! You can even wear a t-shirt of the movie or show! This will also be the theme of our State Summer Games Virtual Dance Friday night, so you could wear it all day if you want!

Saturday, June 5- Sports & Team Spirit Day- We are ending Spirit Week showing our love of sports and team spirit! Wear your SORI team shirt or team colors! Or, you can wear your favorite college or Professional team t-shirt or Jersey! Can't decide? Spend part of the day showing your team spirit and the other part of the day showing off your spirit for your favorite College or Pro team!
